Dear Parents and Community Members
Tena Koutou

- ◆ School Values: Respect—Kia u, Responsibility—Kia mau Resilience—Kia manawanui.
- ◆ Yr 6—8 Peter Snell Camp— Whangaparaoa. Unfortunately the weather was not kind to us however all planned activities for Mon—Thurs were able to take place. The trip to Tiritiri Matangi took place on Thursday and was a wonderful learning experience for children and adults. Thank you to the Supporters of Tiritiri Matangi group and to the guides who shared their knowledge and enthusiasm for conservation with us. A huge thank you to Mrs Miles and Mrs Goldsack for organising and running the camp and to the following parents for their dedication to students over the week: Paula Coombes, Tanya Honiss, Anna Stormont, Anna Ashby, Becs Berry, Joella Goodwin, David Madsen, James Green, Justin McNabb, Daniel Tupaea, Tony Morris, Josh Lovatt, Dave Honiss, Chris McDowell, Caleb Phillips, Jono Coombes. Your assistance over the week was appreciated by all. Thanks also to Lindy Hodgson and Teena Butcher who joined for the island trip. Please note we had a number of covid cases and a vomiting bug circulating.
- ◆ North Athletics—Thank you to all who have offered to help with transport to the event this Wednesday. We will need you all, as at the present time we are short on transport. We are planning to bring students who are only in field events back to school once they are finished.
- ◆ Garden Competition—Entries for our Garden Competition close on Friday afternoon. Forms are available from the school website and the office foyer. Information can be found on the school website under Agricultural Day, Garden Information.

- ◆ Year 3 & 4 Orchestra trip— The trip last week was enjoyed by our children and was a great learning experience. Many thanks to parents who joined us for the trip.

- ◆ Year 5 Camp Adair Camp— Thank you to all who have returned forms. A final notice will come home tomorrow. Note: Parent Camp Meeting this Thursday 6pm in the staffroom.
